OVERVIEW

Online Mediation is a confidential, informal, voluntary, structured process in which an impartial mediator facilitates communication between those in dispute to reach a mutually acceptable solution. It is a method that saves a lot of time, energy and legal costs.

TALK POINTS:

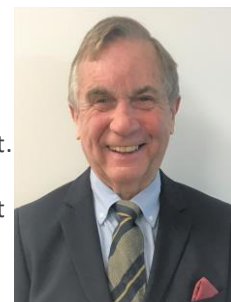

- What online mediation means and how it works.
- The advantages of online mediation.
- How everything, and more, can be done online just as in face-to-face mediations.
- Sharing of documents, pictures, worksheets, videos and websites etc.
- Joint and private meetings with parties. Shuttle diplomacy in multi-party disputes.
- Sharing and annotation.
- Sharing and agenda for the mediation.
- Creating a 'Memorandum of Understanding' and agenda for follow-up meeting and emailing to parties for electronic signature.

ABOUT OUR TALKS

Our educational lunch talks encourage our clients, professionals, directors, senior management, business owners and legal counsel to acquire knowledge and awareness, promote deliberations and networking to explore new strategic partnerships. These lunch talks are complimentary and are open to interested members of the public to attend.

GUEST SPEAKER

Andrew Dane, a qualified Workplace Mediator and a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development. He is an experienced and Reputable Personnel & Employment Law Specialist Based near Newcastle Upon Tyne, Covering the whole of the UK.

Andrew has comprehensive and diverse experience in successfully dealing with practically every aspect of Employment Law or Staff matter. This experience has been gained over four decades, at the front end of diverse industries, from Construction and Civil Engineering, Quarrying to Brewing, Consultancy, Retail, Food Processing, Hotel & Catering, Hairdressing, Social Clubs and Rubber Manufacturing. Andrew also successfully managed a highly successful programme for the Employment service in the last recession.
